The Nature of Dhoomavati As The Nature of A Black Hole

A Black Hole

A Black hole is the last stage of a Stars life, after Super Nova, it causes end to even life of universe around it.

A Black hole Is constantly sucking up things outside it.

A Black hole has such intense gravity/attraction power that even light cannot escape it.

A Black hole causes end of Time itself, because it sucks all to its core. There is no duality or motion left, hence no time.

A black hole is the darkest thing in universe, because it does not radiate or reflect any light. Anything sucked into its core, loses all energy.

A Black hole is now being speculated as an ""INTER DIMENSIONAL PORTAL"" by leading scientist, some theories state, it looks dark from entry end, but it looks light from exit end... however person or thing that gets sucked into, gets transformed to higher frequency upon exit.

Dhoomavati

Dhoomavati is depicted as a very Old lady (the last stage of woman's life, here woman is depicting Adi Shakti as Prakriti, the creation of creator).

Dhoomavati is constantly hungry and thirsty, she engulfs anyone and anything.

Dhoomavati, once engulfed "Shiva", the God of the Gods, hence meaning The consciousness/light itself does not escape her.

Dhoomavati ends existence of even Shiva, who is, The Maha-kala, Deity/Lord of Time.

Dhoomavati is said to be Pure Tamasik, darkest one, causing total silence, Absolute stillness. That state of human mind leads to "Samadhi".

Dhoomavati is the Shakti to cause the final "Mahapralay", dissolution of physical, mental/causal as well as Super Causal Planes. The 14 Planes, all Gods/Universal functions are dissolved in her. After this dark pause, the "Kaal-Chakra" (Time Cycle) is restarted, allowing to new life. She has
